SENIOR WILL

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty-six, City of Olds, County of Henry, State of Iowa, United States of America, being, according to the judgment of our teachers, of reasonably sound mind, but according to the most eminent physicians, unable to spend another year or even a semester in such environment, do make and publish this, our last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

We, the Senior Class, will our responsibility of always having our daily assignments completed to the studious Juniors.

ARTICLE II

We, the Senior girls, will our unnecessary gossip and catty remarks to the Junior girls.

ARTICLE III

We, the Senior boys, will our art of exterior decorating to the Junior boys. Keep up the good work.

ARTICLE IV

We, the Senior Class, leave our mixed-up, hand-carved desks to the Juniors. We hope they will provide you with as much history as they did us.

ARTICLE V

1. Norma Abrahamson leaves her perfect attendance record to Elaine Stephens. Never be tardy!!
2. Fred Anderson wills his editorial positions to any Junior who thinks he can get the most people out of study hall to help him.
3. Marlene Anderson wills her ability to fall asleep in class to Yvonne Hult. Never let a question by the teacher awaken you.
4. Duayne Benson wills his exterior decorating kit to Harold Swailes.
5. Margaret Evans wills her height to Dick Anderson. Use it to the best of your ability, Dick.
6. Lyle Conrad wills to Carolyn Lindell his ability to talk. He feels you can do as well as he did, Carolyn!!
7. Carol Graber wills her giggles to Jimmy Swailes. May he get as much enjoyment out of it as Carol did.
8. David Evans wills his willingness to try anything once to Jimmy and Harold Swailes. Good luck, fellow!
9. Marlene Jones wills her cheerleading position to Jerry Lindeen. May your lungs take it as well as her's did.
10. Edward Evans wills his important feeling about school, which he has not as yet acquired, to Donald Allen.
11. Ann Mullin wills her late hours to any Junior who thinks that he can keep them.
12. John Peterson wills his dozing hours in study hall to John Wickham. Just a word of advice, John, don't let the teachers catch you!
13. Marjorie Mullin wills her front seat to Jane Lindeen. May you get by with as much as Marjorie did.
14. Royce Miller wills his basketball abilities to Dick Anderson.
15. Frances Erwin wills her basketball suit to Jane Lindeen. Hope it fits!!
16. Laris Shelman wills his tardiness to any Junior who is good at making up excuses.
17. David Wenger wills his quiet ways to Jackie Foster. "Mums" the word, Jackie!

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Four score and twenty five years ago our great grandfathers graduated from Olds Institution of Mental Torture. Since then all have passed away and have been transmigrated into some other form of life. Just what these forms are, were until recently, unknown. However, after many years of extensive research Professor Kidere has come up with this report on the fowl theory of transmigration--which is decidedly for the birds.

He says, "It is my conviction that Mother Nature intended for her subjects to exist in two completely different forms of life; one of which may be completely unrelated to the other. For instance, that one speedy chap, Royce Miller, is now a contented turtledove who finds satisfaction in fathering his own little nest. Those of you who are lovebirds will agree that there is nothing more annoying than a snoopy bird-watcher--Fred Anderson and Marjorie Mullin might not have admitted it in their first life, but now they resent anyone's prying eyes. Perched high on a limb, a colorful parrot, David Wenger, is having difficulty saying anything because a pelican, Frances Erwin, persists in telling him fishy stories. This chattering disturbs Norma Abrahamson, the night owl as she attempts to catch up on her sleep. An early birdie, otherwise known as Laris Shelman, further adds to the disturbance with advice on how to get to bed on time. His interest in the conversation wanes, however, as he hears the golden tones of Edward Evans the humming bird bubbling forth from his ruby throat. In a nearby field is busy Duayne Benson who is now satisfied being a brown thrasher instead of a binder. Suddenly big John Peterson, a fat legged ostrich, comes galloping by, kicking mud on an innocent bystander----that dirty birdie David Evans. Carol Graber, that ever loving slick chick, who witnessed the mishap, flew to his aid and kindly gave him directions to the nearest birdbath.

Probably the bird who has the largest appetite is a vulture, Marlene Jones. For this reason she seems to have a bad influence on another Marlene. Whenever Marlene Anderson, a mocking bird, sees the vulture stuffing herself, she tries to eat just as much. In the neighborhood lives a mischievious catbird, Lyle Conrad, who likes to crow about the meals he has made of other over-stuffed birdies.

A bald eagle, Ann Mullin, lamenting the fact that her precious hair has disappeared but welcomes a carrier pigeon, Margaret Evans, with a supply of hair rejuvenator.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

OUR HEARTS WERE YOUNG AND GAY

by
Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough

In the summer of 1923 two young ladies, Cornelia Skinner and Emily Kimbrough, voyaged to Europe to try their fling at independence. The many complex situations that arose aboard ship and in Paris furnished the activity for the 1955 junior play. The warm audience reaction indicated that young and old alike will remember this production with pleasure.

Those who portrayed the characters in the play were: Cornelia Otis Skinner-Jackie Foster; Emily Kimbrough-Jane Lindeen; Mrs. Skinner-Carolyn Lindell; Mr. Skinner-Jerry Lindeen; Dick Winters-David Evans; Leo McAvoy-John Wickham; Steward-Dick Anderson; Purser-Don Allen; Stewardess-Doris Tindill; Admiral-Harold Swailes; Harriet St. John-Elaine Duncan; Winifred Blaugh-Margee Bergstrom; Inspector-Jim Swailes; Therese-Elaine Stephens; Madame Elise-Yvonne Hult; Monsieur de la Croix-Robert Peterson; Window Cleaner-Bob DeYarman. The director was Jacqueline Hultquist.
